Refined quartz comes from 2 sources. Not only do they protect their crops, they are also a constant source of batteries. Birthdays The following people have their birthdays in the View: 4th - Jas 8Â° - Gus 10Â° - Maru 13Â° - Alex 17Â° - Sam 19Â° - Demetrius 22Â° - Dwarf 24Â° - Willy Summer Strategies In a ©dia, the cultures of seeing take more time to grow than the cultures of spring. Use any sap you can get from Trees for fertilizer. You don't want these plants µ golden stars for beams. You didn't put tappers on all the oaks and Cancer around the Cindersnap Forest entrance to the sewer, right? Quality sprinklers come into play later in the game and save the player time and energy. If you don't get to 40 of the mine by the end of spring, that's fine. Definitely make a point to check the beach on rainy days as more coral can spawn. agriculture will, blend it. You can't throw quartz and coal in an oven to get refined quartz. They water all adjacent tiles so they reach a 3x3 square. Both are 3 money makers and worth the investment. Save some nut star blueberries and possibly honey µ for barrels later. Rain in Y1 There is basically a license to have some fun. This includes items outside this section that can help fill in blank spaces. However, by the time you do not get the gold upgrade, you should not have switched to sprinklers. Then after spring 28, there will be no more potatoes unless you unlock the greenhouse. Ducks produce feathers (a beam article) and rabbits produce a rabbit and very rarely a rabbit bird. you do not go down, you will see more veins of humanity coming down. Thunder storms are a common inc during the view and occasionally appear during the fall. The mine will still be there in the see. This travel marketer will be a key companion to complete the packages in Y1. Or you can change all the CDs and broken glasses you receive from fishing in a recycling machine (worked). And the bus is not worth until you have the key to the charm of the level 120 Mina Spring Y1Priorities for Spring Y1: Save 10,000 g for summer backpack 1000G Updcollect 300 Wood to secure the beach bridge to the Level 40 at Minubuy at least 1 strawberry seed package from Egg hunt Event in Spring 13. Ah that the new smell of the farmer .... on the 6 forrage level take the recipe to create rumber bastains. When expanding, put ones near places where you deal with the harvest of things like the coop / barn or greenhouse or anything else. Your goal is to keep the fish inside the left green box, while the green meter À € right rises. Items worth saving save are CDs and broken glasses. 80+ as it is when gold ore gets to appear. The most important priority © saving 10,000 gold to see. If you do, you will lose money and ems. You will also want to keep your energy. You drop once a day, for more days, the tool tip on the seeds says. If you need material, Robin sells wood for 10g each. No, under any circumstances, give your first prismatic fragment the gunther in the museum. They require 1 iron ingot, 1 gold ingot and 1 refined quartz. Build in 6x6 squares: this is a matter of taste. Floors 40+ offer iron. Pikes (town/lake) are a pain to catch, but somewhat profitable. Didn't read? You will not be able to move through these crops like with the others. Scarecrows: Over time, your crops will be threatened by crows. These are worth more for mining skillups than plain rocks or ore veins. Tool upgrade priority: Not all tools are created equally. Eventually you'll have a horse that will let you move around Pelican Town much faster than you would by foot. The Dance of the Moonlight Jellies takes place on the 28th of Summer. And those ingots are used for all kinds of crafted items as well as tool upgrades. Also consider a maple/oak tapper farm somewhere on your farm. Good luck.As far as mining, your goal for summer is to reach level 80+. But 40 is a good floor to shoot for. It's also worth noting the Legend is worth a craption of money. And strangely enough there's a lack of a good year one (or Y1) guide for the game. I highly recommend growing Corn on your first day and continuing to harvest it for the next two seasons. These are not by any means hardfast things you absolutely should accomplish by X date or season. Not only because you long-term need the wood, but because you need the foraging skill ups. This includes green beans, tomatoes, grapes, hops, and whatever crops I might have missed. These fruit trees normally require 28 days to grow and only produce in their season. Keys are used to make wine and other kinds of beverages. Consider upgrading it to gold during winter of Y1 if you have excess money. BundlesA few days into the game — maybe a week or so — you'll be treated to a cutscene involving Lewis lamenting the state of the community center. Main Walkthrough Toasty! The second season of the Stardew Valley year, Summer is a time of Amusement and amusement, where people of the valley get out of their homes and have fun in the hot climate. The mayonnaise and duck mayonnaise are two different items. The summer will be where you really begin to bring the money from agriculture, then you need money for the seeds. You never know when you see another fragment. Another thing to consider is the hunt for the worms. Most slow growing vegetables such as cauliflower and abobles will be requested by someone in the middle of the season. If you have a ton of money, consider buying and planting the autumn fruit trees at the beginning for packages. Pass at least half if no longer, your initial money (intentional pub) on blueberry seeds on the first day. I suggest something like that. Pay attention to the tool tip on the seeds: Seeds are seasonal. Everything you do drains the power bar. Your updates work exactly like the watering can. The mining trolleys will make it easy for the movement for the city. Bombs, cheese for healing, stone for emergency stairs, etc. It takes a lot of time to prepare anything in barrels, then do biigi wheat fields and wiring during the summer, then spend the rest of the year fermenting through your barrels. The lower left corner I use as a farm of dispensable trees using slopped seeds of cut trees. If the Gods RNG are gracious and you stumbled on an old seed, now it's a good time to plant it in the greenhouse. These include the greenhouse on your farm, the mining car system, the bus to the desert of Calico, the bridge to the quarry and the boulder in the mountains. Wiki has more information about packages. I will use a lot of generalities. Plant a lot of cauliflower seeds on spring day 18 is a idea. There is a set of seeds that require what we call trellis. Eggs are useful for mayonnaise à € a that many of the residents like, with a few µ. You will not get much fruit outside it, but at least you will not meet the requirements for bundles. Get used to the bee lining for the traveler trader: Every Friday and Sunday, the traveling merchant will appear near the lake to the south of his farm. Did you find any spring onions near the entrance to the sewer in the lake? Keep giving people things that make them happy. If you do not finish a set, you will not be rewarded with an item or friendship with the locals. There are also all kinds of items in the mine that you can't find elsewhere like gems and there are adventure guild rewards to kill X amount of Y monster. super cheap (10g each) and grows to maturity in 4 days. Alternate fishing and mining will help you until the harvest time. Once you have gold ingots, you can't eat building quality sprinklers. Don't do that. It's worth putting rubber tappers on all of them if you're not building barrels and bee houses. And when you're ready, throw the fruits of your labor into barrels and profit. There are still the objectives of the Hunters for the adventure guild. Garbage and floating wood can be recycled in torches and wood. The barns cover cows and later goats, sheep and pigs. And, uh, don't hit him with a gun.) This will also unlock the nearby Spa, where you can't quickly rejuvenate Energy after 3 a long working day and continue working. Turn all the crap fish like anchovies and carp into something useful. If you don't have the ingots left over, it's worth considering upgrading your pick and ax to ÀS. If a rabbit pom appears, buy it. Package Priorities: Not all packages and rewards in the package are created in the same way. You won't need MANY oak resins and maple syrup. Keep an eye on 3. Do all the things you haven't done yet. celebration, where watch hordes of jellyfish going toward beach. You may not need to do some cleaning of your Between stations, but chances will not be as radical as the winter transition for spring. It is not the most complex process: you even a place with your hoe after recovering some territory of the mess spread on your farm. These work exactly like blueberries and reward is better. Keep in mind that scarecrows have a radius of 8 squares that looks like this. This.
